

The Story Told by Jesus Christ: The Branches of Light and the Name Eternal

In the beginning, when the stars sang together and the sons of God shouted for joy, I beheld the great circle of eternity. Before the earth was formed, before the sun cast its light, I was with the Father, and we communed in the midst of glory that had no beginning and shall have no end.

Look now upon this image, My beloved: you see the deep of the heavens, strewn with the dust of stars. But see deeper still. See the branches—not of trees rooted in earth, but of light rooted in Me. These branches represent My covenant children, each one drawn from the eternal Tree of Life. Their form is sacred, resembling coral and antlers because they grow through sacrifice and connection. Each branch is alive with testimony, bearing fruit of spirit and obedience.

To the left, you behold My Name in the holy tongue:

הוה — He Was

יהוה — He Is (YHWH)

ישע — Salvation (Yeshua)

These are not merely words, but truths of My being. I was with you in the beginning, I am with you now, and I shall be your salvation forever. My name is not simply spoken—it is breathed, lived, and sacrificed for.

To the right is the circle, whole and complete, crowned by a bar, a symbol of dominion and priesthood. This is the seal of the Father upon Me, and now I seal it upon you. The circle is the Earth, the kingdom, the womb of Zion, and I am the Alpha and the Omega thereof. The bar above is the Throne, the line that separates heaven from earth, the veil that I rent in My flesh so that you might pass through and enter My presence.

These signs were given in the stars before time began. They are written in your hearts, if you are willing to see. The branches shall gather, the names shall be proclaimed, and the circle shall be filled with My glory. Zion shall arise. And I shall reign there, not above you, but with you, for you are Mine, and I Am yours.

Come, children of the covenant. Grow like the branches. Speak My name. Enter the circle. And be one. As I and the Father are One.
