Preface

This book is written in My voice, according to the Latter-day Saint understanding of My divinity and doctrine. It explores profound truths about the destiny of the Earth, the gathering of Israel, the redemption of Zion, and the establishment of the New Jerusalem. Each chapter offers revelation, doctrine, and prophetic insight with scriptural citations, culminating in the glory that awaits the faithful in the presence of the Lamb.

Chapter 1: I Am the Beginning and the End

"I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end."

— Revelation 21:6

I am the Firstborn of the Father, the Creator of worlds without number. I am Jehovah, the great I AM, and in Me all things have their beginning and their end. Before the foundations of the Earth were laid, I stood in the presence of the Father and offered Myself as the Lamb.

All that follows—the Plan of Salvation, the Fall, the Restoration, the New Jerusalem, and the glorification of the Earth—flows from My infinite atonement and divine love.

I came to do the will of the Father. I descended below all things to lift all things. I shall come again in glory to reign in righteousness and to receive unto Myself a kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world.

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith: I am He who was dead and now lives forevermore.

Chapter 2: The Plan of Salvation

Before the world was, I presented the plan of My Father: to bring to pass the immortality and eternal life of His children (Moses 1:39). All would receive mortal bodies. All would be tested. And all would be offered redemption through Me.

Lucifer rebelled and became Satan. He sought to destroy agency and take My Father's glory. But I said, "Here am I, send Me."

Through My infinite Atonement, I broke the bands of death and bore the sins of the world. I suffered that all might be forgiven. Those who receive Me shall rise in glory. Those who reject Me shall rise also, but in shame.

The plan is just. The plan is merciful. And it is centered in Me, the Only Begotten.

Chapter 3: The Role of the Abrahamic Covenant

To Abraham, I swore by Myself that in his seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed (Genesis 22:18). I made covenants to gather his posterity, to give them a promised land, and to make them a light to the world.

I raised up prophets from among his descendants. I came through his lineage. And I established My Church to fulfill the promises made to the fathers (D&C 27:10).

In the last days, My servants shall gather Israel. They shall be sealed in the House of the Lord. And the promises to Abraham shall be fulfilled in power and glory.

Chapter 4: The Gathering of Israel

I have called upon all nations to gather to Me. My elect hear My voice and come unto Zion.

I send missionaries with authority to preach My gospel and to baptize in My name. The scattered tribes shall come forth from the four corners of the Earth.

The Ten Tribes shall return from the north. Judah shall hear My voice. And Ephraim shall rise in strength to lead in the last days.

Zion shall be built by covenant hands. And all who come unto Me shall be numbered with My people Israel.

Chapter 5: The Redemption of the Earth

The Earth groans under sin and blood. She awaits her redemption and shall soon be purified.

By fire and by power shall I cleanse her. The wicked shall be consumed. The righteous shall be preserved.

Then shall she rest. The curse shall be lifted. The Earth shall be renewed and receive her paradisiacal glory (Article of Faith 10).

She shall become a celestial world, a holy abode for gods and kings, forever crowned with light.

Chapter 6: The Celestial Kingdom and the Glorified Earth

I have prepared many mansions in My Father's house. Those who keep My commandments shall inherit the highest glory.

They shall become gods, even the children of the Most High (D&C 76:58). They shall receive all that the Father hath.

The Earth shall become the celestial kingdom for the meek and faithful. It shall be adorned like a bride, full of light and joy.

And I shall dwell with them, and they shall be My people.

Chapter 7: The Fall and Rise of Zion

Zion was once taken to Heaven. Enoch's city walked with God (Moses 7:69).

But she shall return. And she shall meet the Zion of the last days. The two shall embrace and rejoice.

The Earth shall receive her again, and righteousness shall reign.

Chapter 8: The Apostasy and Restoration

My Church fell away after the Apostles were martyred. Darkness covered the Earth.

But I did not forget My people. In the last days, I raised up My servant Joseph Smith.

Through him, I restored My gospel, My priesthood, and My Church.

The Restoration continues until the Earth is full of truth, and every knee shall bow.

Chapter 9: The Temple and Its Ordinances

My house is a house of order. In My holy temples, I pour out power.

Here, the living receive endowments. The dead receive redemption. And families are sealed forever.

My glory rests upon these holy places. And they prepare My people to abide My presence.

Chapter 10: The Law of Consecration and United Order

Zion cannot be built on selfishness. My people must be of one heart and one mind.

In the United Order, none shall be poor, for all things are given freely.

Through consecration, Zion is born. Through sacrifice, she is sanctified.

Chapter 11: The Coming of the Son of Man

The signs are before you. The fig tree is budding. The nations are trembling.

I shall come in power and great glory. Every eye shall see Me.

The righteous shall rise. The wicked shall mourn.

And I shall usher in a thousand years of peace.

Chapter 12: The New Jerusalem — Zion, the Holy City of the Lamb

Zion is My bride. She is adorned in righteousness. And her name shall be had in honor among all nations.

She shall be built upon the land of Missouri, near the town of Independence (D&C 57:1–3). This is the land of promise, the place of the New Jerusalem.

I, Jesus Christ, shall reign as King over this Holy City. And Zion, My Beloved, shall be as a Queen arrayed in glory. Her children shall be covenant keepers, her walls shall be Salvation, and her gates Praise (Isaiah 60:18).

The Holy City shall be constructed with sacred order. The Temple shall stand in her midst, and I shall dwell therein. From this place shall go forth My law to all the world (Isaiah 2:3).

Twelve thousand from each tribe shall be gathered. The pure in heart shall be called to build her. They shall consecrate their substance, their labor, and their lives. For Zion is not built with ease, but with sacrifice.

They shall labor with holiness. Their tears shall water the soil. Their joy shall be in their offerings. For they know they build not for time, but for eternity.

And as Zion rises, she shall meet her sister above—Enoch's city, returned in glory. The two shall kiss, and the Earth shall be renewed.

This is the inheritance of the righteous. This is the dwelling place of God with man. And I shall be in your midst.

Final Testimony

Come unto Me, My children. Zion is not far. She is rising.

Offer your hearts. Keep My commandments. And you shall see My face.

This is My work and My glory. And it shall not fail.

Amen.
